OBSERVATIONS YESTERDAY. WAR DEF'T, SIGNAL SERVICE U. S. ARMY, THURSDAY, June 20, 1878, 10:08 p.m. Place of Bar, Ther, Dir, 1 Force.

THERE is nothing emitted from the Berlin congress that justifies any prediction as to results. The statements of the proceedings are guesses, intended to influence markets or to create a sensation in the line of news.

W. M. M'KLHOY, Sergeant.

THE Baltimore Sun states the case precisely correct when it says that "General L. B. Horrigan, a northern man and a Federal soldier, has been nominated for criminal judge by the Democrats of Memphis, Tennessee. He was nominated over some of the ablest and most popular lawyers of that city.'

Or the seven senators who are to investigate Stanley Mathews, two-Allison, of Iowa, and Ingalls, of Kansas-were the tellers on the part of the senate at the miscount of the electoral votes in joint convention. Two others-Edmunds, of Vermont, the chairman, and Hoar, of Massachusetts-were members of the eight-to-seven commission Mathews knows what he is about.

BOB INGERSOLL is reported to have uttered the following treasonable remark: "Now in the following treasonable remark: "Now in publican senator from Ohio, leaves no room regard to the Potter resolution I am in favor to doubt the wisdom of the investigation, and of it. If I was Hayes, the moment Dennis confessed, I would immediately have demanded an investigation. I would never hold a seat by fraud. If fraud has been committed with the presidency was wrested from the Democracy. let the Democratic party displace Hayes and Wheeler." Now it is in order to suspend the army and navy. Bob must be suppressed.

A DISPATCH from Berlin states that the private conference between the Russian, Austrian and English plenipotentiaries, which took place yesterday evening, lasted two hours, without arriving at any result. They had the Bolgarian limits question under consideration. The congress adjourned yesterday, to resume its sittings Monday or Tuesday. Cable dispatches yesterday were without reliable reports as to what the congress has accomplished, as usual.

Sr. Louis, June 20 .- At the inquest this evening on the body of Frank Vass, who was killed yesterday by Rodemeyer, the evidence showed that the murder was not only premeditated, but committed in the most coldblooded manner, but the motive of Rodemeyer was not brought out. There was great excitement among the people who congregrated around the corpse of Vass where the inquest was held, and when the officers brought Rodemeyer in there was a demonstration to lynch him, which was only prevented by the police drawing their pistols and showing a strong and bold front.

HOW IS THIS?

What Did Secretary Schurz Write to One of his Subordinates, and which the President so Heartily Indorsed ?-But that was Long Ago.

New York Times, 18th: All the government employes in the sub-treasury in this city have received a neat little circular renesting a contribution of one per cent. of their several salaries for political purposes This is the first experience of the kind which they have had, as it has been thought proper heretofore that the office through which the bulk of the fiscal business of the government is carried on should be exempt from political influence, and conducted on careful business principles. As a rule, appointments there have been made for fitness, removals have occurred very rarely, and only for cause, and political assessments have been unknown.

At one o'clock the President retired for much-This being an era of civil-service reform, it is rather a bad time to introduce a precedent of which such bad use may be made. It is of the utmost importance that the sub-treas-ury, in which fidelity to du'y and personal responsibility are to the highest degree es-sential, should be kept free from the hopes and fears and the uncertainties by which the public service has been demoralized. The circular aforesaid emanates from the secretary of the Republican congressional committee at Washington, and may be meant as an invitation rather than an assessment, but it will inevitably be construed as in a certain sense authoritative, and it would be better if everybody in the sub-treasury were left to make voluntary contribution for the aid of

As you know, the President was called upon in April, 1877. in the exercise of his high constitutional duty, and in an emergency when two rival State governments were arrayed against each other in open armed hostility, threatening at any moment the public peace, to send a Lou-isiana commission of five distinguished citizens, of whom you were one, under written instructions, not only to aid him by reliable information, but to prevent by their presence and influence actual revolution and civil war. This duty you and other members of the commission voluntarily assumed and faithfully performed. regiments might be recruited to 100 men in each company, and that a sufficient force should be employed for the defense of the Texan frontier, provided that the army's strength should not exceed 25,000 men. The army appropriation bill for 1878-9 leaves the strength unchanged, but reduces the allowance for quarters and abolishes all extra allowance are those for full and feed. There are ances, as those for fuel and feed. There are to be no promotions on the staff, nor on the line above the grade of captain. The force on the Texan border remains, and the posse comitatus section is added, declaring that it shall not be lawful to employ the army as a posse for the purpose of executing the laws, except where such employment may be expressly authorized by the constitution or act of congress; the money appropriated shall not be used to pay the expenses of troops so employed, and persons wilfully violating the act shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $10,000, or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. The position which the Democrats occupied during the last congress is thus approved. For the navy for the year ending June 30, 1878, a deficiency appropriation act provides $1,446,688 16 for pay, $311,953 53 for Seligman Brothers, etc. That of May 4, 1878, for the incoming fiscal year appropriates for pay (active list) $3. year, appropriates for pay (active list) $3,-822,875; retired list, $640,400; construction and repairs, $1,500,000; steam engineering, $800,000; naval academy, $52,580; marine corps, $614,000; civil establishment, $150,000. The Unsettled Condition of the Labor System Causes Fearful Sacrifices of Sugar Plantations-A Reverend Swindler.

Kingston, Jam., June 20.—Some large ugar estates in the parish of St. Mary have seen sold far below their value—fifty thousand dollars-because the owners are dissatisfied with the government system of immigration, which the planters rely upon for taking off their crops, the native labor being capricious. The cattle alone on the estate, which can be driven off, are valued at twentyfive thousand dollars, and there is a crop of sugar and rum to be taken off yet.
